

August 2007 MoneyMinute – Lighten Up!

By Jennifer Cray, CFP®

If the markets have been bringing out your Inner Worrywart, we encourage you to relax. These timeless quotes will help you restore your sense of humor about things financial:

Dorothy Parker: The two most beautiful words in the English language are "check enclosed."

Errol Flynn: My problem lies in reconciling my gross habits with my net income.

Groucho Marx: Money frees you from doing things you dislike. Since I dislike doing nearly everything, money is handy.

J. Paul Getty: If you can count your money, you don't have a billion dollars.

Jackie Mason: I have enough money to last me the rest of my life, unless I buy something.

Katharine Whitehorn: The easiest way for your children to learn about money is for you not to have any.

Woody Allen: If only God would give me some clear sign! Like making a large deposit in my name in a Swiss bank.

Fran Liebowitz: I've done the calculation and your chances of winning the lottery are identical whether you play or not.

Steven Wright: You can't have everything. Where would you put it?

George Bernard Shaw: Lack of money is the root of all evil.

Leo Rosten: Money can't buy happiness, but neither can poverty.

Kin Hubbard: The safest way to double your money is to fold it over and put it in your pocket.

Rita Rudner: Someday I want to be rich. Some people get so rich they lose all respect for humanity. That's how rich I want to be.

And my own favorite...

Woody Allen: Money is better than poverty, if only for financial reasons.

Many of our clients are self-directed investors, and we enjoy helping them become more successful by following our professionally designed and monitored portfolios. Our professional services are cost-efficient, and it's rare when a client doesn't make or save more than it costs. As independent financial planners, we have a fiduciary responsibility to our clients to always put their best interests first. This may seem obvious to you, but in fact it is all too rare in the financial services area.
